

Asa Harrington Named President of Capital One Canada

Toronto (Ontario), June 25, 2024 – Capital One Financial Corporation is pleased to announce that Asa Harrington has been appointed President of Capital One Canada effective August 2024. In this role, Mr. Harrington will be responsible for the strategic direction and operations of the Canadian business, which aims to help Canadians succeed with credit.

Mr. Harrington has been with Capital One for 11 years and most recently was a Managing Vice President within Capital One's US Card division. In this role, he was responsible for the strategic direction, customer experience and marketing of all Capital One rewards card products. In addition to being an experienced Credit Officer, Mr. Harrington's successful execution on some of Capital One's top programs within the credit card acquisition, risk management, loyalty and reward channels make him a top choice for the role.

"I'm thrilled to announce the appointment of Asa Harrington as the new President of Capital One Canada," said Lucy Hagues, SVP & Head of International Business, Capital One. "Asa brings with him a wealth of experience and achievements – he has a proven track record for driving sustainable growth within Capital One and I'm excited to see what is to come for our Canadian business under his leadership."
